John 18:12-14

Trials - Then and Now

John 18:14,19-24; 11:47-53; 2:19; Matthew 26:59-61

Q & A - Right and Wrong

Jeremiah 17:9; 2 Corinthians 5:17

Closing

Philippians 1:21-26

1. Annas had reason to dislike Jesus greatly as Jesus had, at least twice, disrupted his cash flow by cleansing the _____ as recorded in John 2 and Matthew 21.
2. The question is, "Do you trust God? Do you have faith in God? Will you stand firm or _____ Him during times of trouble as Peter did?"
3. If there is not a purpose to evil and God does not bring _____ from evil, then He would be a malicious God. Maliciousness is a trait of fallen men, not God.
4. God created Israel to be His chosen nation. He gave them His revealed word, the Scriptures, to guide their lives and laws to live by. These laws were _____ from all other nations.
5. Have faith in God, not _____ and certainly do not judge God by the actions of man!
6. By the time of Jesus many men in the Sanhedrin were appointed for _____ reasons and were not qualified. The Sanhedrin had become a career path to power and wealth.
7. Jesus was arrested in violation of the law and tried in violation because the Sanhedrin lacked evidence or _____ of good reputation.
8. Even though Caiaphas did not fully understand his _____ because of his evil intentions, it was true that Jesus would die for a nation and beyond that for people that they might have salvation.
9. As is with every good _____, there is an element of truth to make it believable.
10. What can men do to cure a wicked heart? Nothing, absolutely nothing! But what is impossible for man is _____ for God.
