

1. All believers are to be stewards of the money and assets entrusted to them by God.
2. Having wealth is not necessarily sin nor is it necessarily an indication of God's special blessing on one's life.
3. If all Christians faithfully tithed 10%, can you imagine what good management of those funds could accomplish for the kingdom of God?
4. Wealth, power and pride often go hand in hand. The wealthier a person is, the greater the temptation is for the sin of "haughtiness".
5. "My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory." James 2:1
6. The formula for financial security is simple, we are to place our trust in God as we manage our wealth, not trusting in money, ambition or gaining wealth at other's expense.
7. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." Matt. 6:19-20
8. God does not mean for material wealth to be hoarded or to be doled out sparingly with strings attached. Material wealth given by God is to be used to serve others.
9. We should be grateful to God for being given opportunity and the ability to love and care for others. This privilege is made possible only by God's provision of grace.
10. "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master." Matthew 25:21
11. Let us fulfill the word of God that says, "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourself. Let each of you look not only to his own interest, but also to the interest of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus." Phil. 2:3-5
