Orphans and Abortion

Genesis 2:7; Leviticus 17:11; Isaiah 44:24;
Jeremiah 1:5; James 1:27; Exodus 4:31; Luke 1:68

Widows and Abortion

James 1:27

1. “To those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the _____, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury.” Romans 2:7

2. True religion or faith is observable by the _____ that has taken place in how one thinks, acts and speaks. It is a reflection of the inward condition of the heart, mind, and soul.

3. It is Christians who are to expose mankind’s _____ to one another and to show the world a better way by shining God’s light into the darkness.

4. Although the majority of people in New Mexico claim to be Christian, this comes into question when they _____ to take a stand against abortion, which denies the humanity of a defenseless baby.

5. If God so cares for children who have been orphaned, would he not also be concerned for children whose lives are _____ by their parents?

6. “For the life of the flesh is in the _____, and I have given it for you on the altar to make atonement for your souls, for it is the blood that makes atonement for the life.”
Leviticus 17:11

7. The rights of the weak are defined by the _____ of the strong.

8. God’s calling to “visit” those in need carries wonderful, redeeming overtones. What a great calling for the church! We are to visit, to care for, to defend _____ people, born and unborn!

9. The greatest criticism from pro-choice people of those who are pro-life is that pro-lifers care _____ for babies and not for women.

10. May God grant us the ability to speak the language of _____ to orphans, to widows, to helpless children, and to people in affliction. Our language of compassion must be followed by acts of compassionate love and mercy!
